DID NOT ABANDON HIS OHIL.

An item in this column a few days ago stated that a man and his wife had left the city and abandoned three little girls in No. 536 sau h Patrick street, and that neighbors were caring for the little ones. It appears that there is anhouse, baying been assured by neighbors that they would care for the little ones during his temporary absence. Mr. Weeks returned to Alexandria on the at amer Three Rivers at an early hour this morning and upon proceeding to his home was attorished to learn that his little girls had been placed in the Children's Home. He proceeded to that institution and carried them to his home. The above is written in justice to Mr. Weeks, who is a reliable and Industrious resident and who had no intention of leaving his children to the tender mercies of anyone.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Eliza Hamersley took place this afternoon rom the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Cox, on Cameron street, between Henry and Fayette. The services were conducted by Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Otu:ch. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. H. Cox, C. H. Oallahan, William Recker, Thomas Oarter, John Schwarzman and Lu her
